

BREAKUP SEASON

an independent feature film production filming in La Grande, Oregon in February 2023

OPEN CASTING CALL FOR ACTORS

Synopsis: 24-year-old Ben brings his girlfriend Cassie from Los Angeles to his small Oregon hometown for Christmas. After a tumultuous first meeting with Ben's parents and siblings, the couple gets into an argument that spirals into a breakup. But with winter conditions, Cassie is stuck with Ben's eccentric family for the rest of the trip. The holiday goes from Xmas... to Ex-Mas.

Creative Team: The film is written & directed by H. Nelson Tracey and produced by Static Films, a boutique production company based in Los Angeles known for producing thoughtful, independent stories from emerging filmmakers. The cast will include recognizable film and television actors. The crew will include a blend of visiting filmmakers and local residents collaborating to produce the film.

This will be the first feature film shot in the Grande Ronde Valley. The film's release will begin with a nationwide film festival tour, followed by a VOD and/or theatrical release during the 2024 holiday season.
