

BREAKUP SEASON

an independent feature film production filming in La Grande, Oregon in February 2023

Local Corporate Sponsors

Synopsis: 24-year-old Ben brings his girlfriend Cassie from Los Angeles to his small Oregon hometown for Christmas. After a tumultuous first meeting with Ben's parents and siblings, the couple gets into an argument that spirals into a breakup. But with winter conditions, Cassie is stuck with Ben's eccentric family for the rest of the trip. The holiday goes from Xmas... to Ex-Mas.

Creative Team: The film is written & directed by H. Nelson Tracey and produced by Static Films, a boutique production company based in Los Angeles known for producing thoughtful, independent stories from emerging filmmakers. The cast will include recognizable film and television actors. The crew will include a blend of visiting filmmakers and local residents collaborating to produce the film.

The film's release will begin with a nationwide film festival tour, followed by a worldwide release on VOD, streaming platforms, and/or theatrical markets during the 2023 or 2024 holiday season.

Production is seeking Corporate Sponsors, in the form of cash donation or donated goods & services, through the Eastern Oregon Film Festival, our fiscal sponsor and a 501(c)3 non-profit.

Corporate Sponsors will receive their logo featured in our end credits, mentions in our press materials for film festivals and premieres, and social media shout-outs from members of our creative team across various social platforms.

Goods & Services Needed:

- Lunch or Dinner for the cast & crew (~$500 daily value)
- Vehicle Rental Donations (SUVs & Passenger Vans)
- Lodging for cast & crew during February 2023 production

Product Placement opportunities available:

- Apparel
- On Screen Food and Beverage products (including alcohol)
- Christmas-Themed Set Decorations
- Shooting Locations (Local Businesses to be visited by the film's main characters)

Further terms and details available upon request.

Interested? Send us an email at hello@staticfilms.la
We'd love to hear from you!