

YOUR #EOFF2024 SPONSORSHIP

Entering its 15th year in 2024, The Eastern Oregon Film Festival stands as a beacon of cinematic excellence. Acknowledged by MovieMaker Magazine in 2018 and 2022 as one of the Top 25 Coolest Festivals in the World, EOFF has evolved into a year-round organization. Dedicated to the promotion of independent cinema, the festival thrives through curated exhibitions, industry development, and meaningful artist engagement, actively shaping the cultural landscape of rural Eastern Oregon.

Become a driving force behind a cultural phenomenon that's uniquely ours to own! Let's rally together to foster and elevate this pivotal tourism event in La Grande. Your support is not just an investment in the arts; it's a catalyst for economic growth and vitality. Spread the word, lend your support, and witness the transformative power of nurturing our cultural landscape.

OCTOBER 17-19, 2024

SPECIAL EVENT BREAKUP SEASON

This year EOFF will host the final festival screening of this feature film. Incubated at EOFF's Filmmaker Residency and supported via our Filmmaker Support Program - the cast and crew from Portland and L.A. as well as community members near and far who participated in the development and production of the film will make the trek to La Grande to celebrate this accomplishment and to participate in the entire festival.
