(up to 3 links, no maximum length)

The Inaugural Eastern Oregon Field Trip program is a unique opportunity to bring filmmakers to the region with the intention of developing production in this region. Describe how you and your team envision using this trip to work towards this goal.

- What about your story/screenplay would be well suited for Eastern Oregon?
- The program's priority is for filmmakers developing film productions that could be shot in this region. What steps have you taken to work towards producing this project?
- What components of producing this project do you currently feel are missing that you could see Eastern Oregon Film Festival helping you fill in?
- Describe your fundraising strategies and the current status of your project's total budget.

In addition to these questions, please include:

- A short 'selfie' video (< 3 min) with at least one of your team members to introduce yourself(s), your project, and your interest in this program.
- Production Budget (Excel or PDF)
